Job seekers must register to participate in the virtual job fair by visiting this webpage: www.CareerSourceTB.com/JobFair. Job seekers will also have an opportunity to create a profile to include uploading of resume and a profile photo. This Virtual Career Fair offers local and national employers and job seekers more opportunities to connect talent to opportunities.

“We are excited to support MacDill Air Force Base on this virtual job fair utilizing a virtual platform we have been using successfully,” said CSTB CEO John Flanagan. “The more we can help connect employers to job seekers, the better.”

“We are pleased to continue to support our local military installation, MacDill AFB, on their job fair,” said Dan Schneckenburger, Director, Business Services. “This is our first year doing this in a virtual platform and we are excited to be able to share this platform as our community rebounds from the COVID-19 shutdowns and want to support all transitioning veterans into the private sector.”
